As updated on 8th March 2021

This overall Privacy Statement discloses the privacy practices for the entire MPayment website. MPayment collects personal information about our users during usage of the MPayment service. MPayment respects your right to privacy. As part of the process, we give you the opportunity to decline to receive any mailings from either MPayment or other parties to whom MPayment may provide such information.

Information Collection and Use

MPayment is the sole owner of the information voluntarily given to us by the users of this site. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. MPayment collects information from our users at several different points on our website. The data we collect from cookies and other places is used in the aggregate to give us demographic information about the entire MPayment audience in order to improve the MPayment service. The personal information you provide - name, email address, etc. -- allows us to inform you about updates to the service and to notify you of products and services of MPayment, its affiliates and third parties that we believe may be of interest to you. We also share aggregate information -- not individual data -- with our advertisers to help them better understand our services and to monitor the reach of their advertising on the service.

Links

This web site may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that we (MPayment) are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of each and every web site that collects personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this web site.

Limitations

Your privacy is very important to us, however, due to the existing legal regulatory and security environment, we cannot fully ensure that your private communications and other personally identifiable information will not be disclosed to third parties. Additionally, in the unlikely event we need to investigate or resolve possible problems or inquiries, we can (and you authorize us to do so) disclose any information about you to private entities, law enforcement or other government officials as we, in our sole discretion, believe necessary or appropriate.

Security

We use industry-standard efforts to safeguard the confidentiality of your personal identifiable information, such as firewalls and Secure Socket Layers where appropriate. However, "perfect security" does not exist on the Internet.

Notification of Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on this page so our users are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. If, at any point, we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify users by way of an e-mail. Users will have a choice as to whether or not we use their information in this different manner. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.
